John Smith, to enroll as a Conscript, and take the Oath required by Law.
Smith is foreigner and not subject to Conscription.
Respectfully referred to Brig requires me to have every man in the State Troops, between 18 and 45 enrolled regularly and if they Claim exemptions have the remarks set off, with their names, as to the grounds upon which they Claim Exemption.

I believe the enrolment and oath will only bind the man, while he is in the service and if his grounds of exemption is sustained, he will be released from enrolment, and of course absolved from the obligations under it.

I have no discretion, and under my orders the man must be enrolled and sworn John Smith, who being sworn, says that he is a subject of the Queen of Great Brittain, that he is not domiciled or married, that he never has voted either in the United States or the Confederate States, nor has he ever declared his intention to become a citizen of either, and that he is accused and believes that he is not subject to what is commonly known as the Conscript Law of the Confederate States. That his Certificate of Citizenship of Great Brittain, signed by the British Consul Lynn, at Galveston, Texas, on the day of 1863, has been as he is informed, sent to him. in England, with the papers for discharge, and that this affidavit is made as a protest against his being now compelled to take the oath as a

January; on questioning Gen McCulloch regarding the action from the Commander of the District, and insisting that my letters should be withheld me, in the event that the latter should not see proper to grant such discharge. He answered that my documents had never been received by Gen. Magruder. On Feb 1st I was called upon by the Ex. Committee Officer of Pointlet to enroll all able men subject to Conscription, and upon refusing to enroll myself Gen McCulloch gave orders to place me in the guard house for three days, and at the expiration of which time, if I still refused, to have me put in irons. Under these circumstances I thought best to allow myself to be enrolled, having a written protest before W A Evans, & P. Upon receiving my furlough of March 23rd I shall will as soon as possible to appeal to the Commanding General, and ask in person the justice of my claim
